	Approved For Release 2095/96/07: CIA-RDP80-00810A002100050010-2    East Germany
TOPIC_	KVP at the Ustanian M. T.
EVALUAT	ION 25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X
DATE OF	CONTENT_25X1
DATE OB	TAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 17 July 1953
	ICES
PAGES	1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
	3
are with arrespirate and the process
And the Annual Contract of the Annual Contrac
ool and the second seco
•	by 15 KVP soldiers and two trucks loaded with wire, boxes and poles, and 2 field kitchens proceeded toward Nochten, coming from the direction of Goerlitz. The personnel had red-bordered and black-bordered smallets and black soldiers.
1 (1 <sup>2</sup> °	personnel had red-bordered and black-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were armed with rifles. They had their baggabe with them.  On 1 July, the Weisswasser troop training grounds was occupied by an estimated 1,100 to 1,200 KVPs. They were employed on guard duty and construction work.  On 1 July, a tank car was drained into tank trucks with trailers on the spur track of the ration supply depot. The tank trucks left toward Nochten.  The Weisswasser ration supply depot was guarded by 10 KVPs who were red-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were commended by a light trainer.
1 2 · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	personnel had red-bordered and black-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were armed with rifles. They had their baggabe with them.  On 1 July, the Weisswasser troop training grounds was occupied by an estimated 1,100 to 1,200 KVPs. They were employed on guard duty and construction work.  On 1 July, a tank car was drained into tank trucks with trailers on the spur track of the ration supply depot. The tank trucks left toward Nochten.  The Weisswasser ration supply depot was guarded by 10 KVPs who wore red-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were commanded by a lieutenant. No goods stored there had been shipped away.
1 1 2. 1 3. 4.	personnel had red-bordered and black-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were armed with rifles. They had their baggabe with them.  On 1 July, the Weisswasser troop training grounds was occupied by an estimated 1,100 to 1,200 KVPs. They were employed on guard duty and construction work.  On 1 July, a tank car was drained into tank trucks with trailers on the spur track of the ration supply depot. The tank trucks left toward Nochten.  The Weisswasser ration supply depot was guarded by 10 KVPs who were red-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were commended by a light toward.
(1 2 · (1 2 · (1 3 · (1 5 · (1	personnel had red-bordered and black-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were armed with rifles. They had their baggabe with them.  On 1 July, the Weisswasser troop training grounds was occupied by an estimated 1,100 to 1,200 KVPs. They were employed on guard duty and construction work.  On 1 July, a tank car was drained into tank trucks with trailers on the spur track of the ration supply depot. The tank trucks left toward Nochten.  The Weisswasser ration supply depot was guarded by 10 KVPs who wore red-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were commanded by a lieutenant. No goods stored there had been shipped away.
(1 2 4 4 5 4 5 5 X1	personnel had red-bordered and black-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were armed with rifles. They had their baggabe with them.  On 1 July, the Weisswasser troop training grounds was occupied by an estimated 1,100 to 1,200 KVPs. They were employed on guard duty and construction work.  On 1 July, a tank car was drained into tank trucks with trailers on the spur track of the ration supply depot. The tank trucks left toward Nochten.  The Weisswasser ration supply depot was guarded by 10 KVPs who wore red-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were commanded by a lieutenant. No goods stored there had been shipped away.
5. 5. 5X1 5X1	personnel had red-bordered and black-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were armed with rifles. They had their baggabe with them.  On 1 July, the Weisswasser troop training grounds was occupied by an estimated 1,100 to 1,200 KVPs. They were employed on guard duty and construction work.  On 1 July, a tank car was drained into tank trucks with trailers on the spur track of the ration supply depot. The tank trucks left toward Nochten.  The Weisswasser ration supply depot was guarded by 10 KVPs who wore red-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were commanded by a lieutenant. No goods stored there had been shipped away.
(1 2° (1 3° (1 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5	personnel had red-bordered and black-bordered spaulets and black collar patches and were armed with rifles. They had their baggabe with them.  On 1 July, the Weisswasser troop training grounds was occupied by an estimated 1,100 to 1,200 KVPs. They were employed on guard duty and construction work.  On 1 July, a tank car was drained into tank trucks with trailers on the spur track of the ration supply depot. The tank trucks left toward Nochten.  The Weisswasser ration supply depot was guarded by 10 KVPs who were red-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were commanded by a lieutenant. No goods stored there had been shipped away.  KVP trucks seen in Weisswasser from 28 June to 1 July  Comment. It is believed that the troops came from the KVP posts in Loebau and Zittau. The increasing occupancy of the Weisswasser troop training grounds as well as the supply situation there indicate that normal training actually.
(1 2° (1 3° (1 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5	personnel had red-bordered and black-bordered spaulets and black collar patches and were armed with rifles. They had their baggabe with them.  On 1 July, the Weisswasser troop training grounds was occupied by an estimated 1,100 to 1,200 KVPs. They were employed on guard duty and construction work.  On 1 July, a tank car was drained into tank trucks with trailers on the spur track of the ration supply depot. The tank trucks left toward Nochten.  The Weisswasser ration supply depot was guarded by 10 KVPs who were red-bordered epaulets and black collar patches and were commanded by a lieutenant. No goods stored there had been shipped away.  KVP trucks seen in Weisswasser from 28 June to 1 July  Comment. It is believed that the troops came from the KVP posts in Loebau and Zittau. The increasing occupancy of the Weisswasser troop training grounds as well as the supply situation there indicate that normal traditions activities.

CLASSIFICATION SECRET